

Before Indiana's No-Call List, I was nearly driven insane by AT&T who called me every day and twice a day. They would not stop no matter what I did or said. I don't want this to happen again. My rights are violated by telemarketers.